WASHINGTON DISPATCHES

SPEAKER CARLISLE EXPLAINS HIS POSITION IN THE CONTEST CASE.

He Does Not Want the Case Tried in the Newspapers but Will Rely Upon His Opponent's Evidence-The Medical Congress Will go to Berlin in 1890.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.-Mr. Cariisle, in explaining his position in the Thoebe contest, said last night to a correspondent: "I don't want to try the case in the nawapapers, or to talk about it for publication, but there is such a singular misapprehension in regard to it that it is not improper for me to say that I took no testimony for the reason that it was not necessary for me to do sa

"The contestant in his notice charged fraud and irregularities in almost every precinct, but when he came to bis evidence he did not even attempt to prove anything except that there were four illegal votes cast for me at one precluct at Covington, and I don't think the evidence sufficient to show that these four votes were actually cast for me. But assuming that they were, it makes no difference in the result as my majority was 815. Of course there was no reason why I should take testimony. The charges that I interded to rely upon some legal tecnicality and that I will ask an extention of time to take testimony are preposterous. The law allows me all the time necessary, if I had desired to avail myself of it. Certainly, I wouldn't accept a seat in the house if my right to it could be sustained only by a technicality; and, so far from relying on any such ground, I don't even intend to employ an attorney or submit any argument to the committee of the house. Members can take the record just as my opponents have made it up, and on that they can decide the case without interference from me."

Carlisle and the Speakership. WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—It can be stated upon authority that the friends of ex-Speaker Carlisie in the next congress have been seriously considering with him the advisability of not allowing his name to go before the Democratic caucus as a candidate for speaker, but to put some one of their number forward fer that position and to make Mr. Carlisle chairman of the ways and means committee. This matter was discussed with the president while Mr. Carlisle was at Oak View this week in connection with the tariff subject. Many tariff reformers think that if Mr. Carlisle can be induced to believe that his assuming the chairmanship of that important house committee would lead to or bring about harmony on this vexed question, he would forego his personal ambition and accept. What conclusion has been reached will not develop until much later, as a general inter-change of views will now take place among the members of the incoming congress which is composed of many new members.

The Medical Congress In 1890. WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—The medical conwill practice in the courts of Mason and adjoining counties, the Superior Court and Court of Appeals. Special attention given to Collections and to Real Estate. Court street,

MILK "TRUST."

A Great Monopoly in the Lacteal Fluid, the Latest Financial Invention.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10 .- The Milk Shippers' union of the northwest held an important session yesterday. One of the principal matters considered was the formation of a great company or "trust" to mouopolize the entire mlik business of Chicago. Over one hundred shippers representing between thirty and forty towns on all the roads coming into the city were present. The report of a committee appointed at the last meeting of shippers, in April, was read. This committee was to investigate and devise some plan by which to secure more complete co-operation among milk producers. The report recommended that the capital stock of the corporation be $100,000, divided into 10,000 shares of $10

Any farmer producing one can of milk per day should be entitled to at least one share, and no person not a producer of milk shall be allowed to own any stock. The board of directors should have power to fix the price of milk every six months, and control its sale to the dealers and consumers. The directors are to purchase all the product from the producers. When there is no market, or there is a surplus of milk, the surplus is to be converted into butter and

The report concluded with a mass of statistics showing the probable effect of the corporation plan. The committee was instructed to have the report printed in English and German, and oirculate it among the 4,000 shippers who send milk into Chicago. Tue matter will be taken up at the next meeting of the Shippers' association in October.

BLAINE NOT A CANDIDATE.

He Says He Has No Idea of Allowing Mis Name to Be Used.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10. - A special cable to the News from Hamburg, says: Mr. Blaine has found the bankers of Frankfort very hospitable already. He has been their guest at the opera and was the recipient of an informal ovation, if the word may be used, at Seligman's mansion. The Frankfort bankers have innurmerable wealthy connections in the states. They wield a political as well as a financial power the world over. Sellgman's brothers and relations are princes among the money makers of Vienna, Paris, Brussels, London and New York Blaine's credit correspondence will be through their European branches. When he presented his letter to Sellgman the wary banker instantly recognized him and proceeded to make a stir. He assured Mr. Biaine of his high regard and then escorted him through the various banking institutions of the city, introducing at first as "the coming president of the United States." As Seligman recounts the experieuce Blains presently objected to this and assured him smillingly that he was not a can-

"But my brother tells me," persisted Se figman, "that you are sure to be elected." "I have no idea of allowing my name to be used," said Blaine, "I am not seeking the presidency, nor would I take it as a

YOUNG IVES' LIABILITIES.

HIS OWN STATEMENT SHOWS HOW HE LIVED AND DRESSED.

He Says That "Cash in Pocket, $3," Makes His Liabilities $70,006, While His Assets are $86,875, Subject to a $60,000 Mortgage on His Yacht.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—The statement of the individual lia. bilities and assets of the firm of Henry 8. Ives & Co. was filed yesterday in the clerk's office of the court of common pleas by Asgnee William Nelon Cromwell, It hows that Henry S. Ives' liabilities are $70,696.01, to offset which he

HENRY S. IVES. claims assets nominally werth $67,450, and sets for as being actually worth $86,875, subject to a mortgage of $(V),000 held by W. H. Starbuck on the steam yacht Tillie, bought by Ives iast spring, and which he includes in his assote as being worth $55,000. George H. Stayner's liabilities are $72,-His assets are nominally worth $187,250, but their actual value shows a shrinkage to $29,237.50, or $48,218.34 less than he owes. Thomas C. Doremus, the junior member, owes nothing and owns nothing. His seat in the stock exchange he turned into the firm as his share of the capital. The assignee makes up the list of Ives' assets as follows:

Nominal Actual value. vaine.

Steam yacht Tillie, subject to mortgages of $(0.00)....... $*5,000 $85,000 One pair bay horses.
Two sets double harness.
Two sets single harness. 300 1.0 One French hansom cab...... 1,000 One Brewster victoria.....

Totals..... $87,450 $83,375 The blils are a metley collection and show indebtedness of various sorts, the most of them commencing early in the summer, up to which time Ives seems to have paid up some of his accounts. In some respects Ives was luxurious and these accounts show that he not only had the best of everything, but that he did not practice any great amount of self-denial. Although his dress evidenced that he did not want to be considered dudish, he had more clothing than many models of the tailor's art, and all of the expensive material made by a high-priced tailor. From June 13 to the date of the assignment, August 11, he had five suits made by Henry Prouse Cooper, with an extra pair of trousers with each suit, the bill amounting to $430. His bootmaker was Thomas McKay. who made for him between June 15 to August 8 four pairs of boots, and did some repairing at a cost of $57.25. Kaskel & Kaskel were his haberdashers, and from June 13 to July 20 they furnished him with scarfs and neckties galore, silk underwear, a silk night-shirt, and numerous other articles for which they put in a bill of $284.05.

Since June he has had three hats from Youman's, cost $16; J. M. Hodgson, the flerist, has a hill against him for $70, oue item of which is a basket of flowers furnished July 19 for $30; Tiffany has an unitenrized bill of $133, and Theodore B. Starr. the Fifth avenue jeweler, has a bill of $1,760, among the items being a silver tea service at $1,200, five gentleman's plus, seven firwer pins and other articles for personal stornment or household use. His piano he Ald not own, fer C. H. Ditson has a bill against him of $38 for rent of piano and cartage. He owned horses and carriages, get there is a bill against him of $50,50 by a Brooklyn livery keeper for cab hire. Park & Tilford supplied him in the provision line, for which service they have put in a lot of bills footing up to about $1,500. There are also a lot of bills for materials and supplies for the yacht, including signals, charts, repairing sails, uniforms for orew, lights, plumbing work on engines, etc. With the exception of W. H. Starbuck, who holds the mortgage for $60,000 on the yacht, none of the creditors has any security. The assignee states that he has chartered the yacht for the balance of the season on a cash rental. Mr. Starbuck is the person to whom he chartered her, and she is now flying his flag as commodere of the American Yacht club.

The statement of Stayner's assets comprises a long list of securities, most of which are absolutely of no market value whatever. Of them the assignee says that the only ones worth anything are the bonds of the Mineral Range Railroad company, of which Mr. Stayuer holds $6,000, and the stock of the American Exchange in Paris, the American Bank Note company, and of the Mineral Range Railroad company. The greater part of Mr. Stayner's indebtedness arises out of money borrowed on notes. His personal bills are of a different nature from those incurred by Ives, several large ones being for books, and among those bills are those of Scribuer & Weiford, $923.1i; Charles Scribner's Sons, $115.50 and R. L. Solomon's Sons, $996.13. Like Ives, he too, owed a tailor's bill, and to the same firm, but it only amounts to $295. There is an item of debt to Sarah L. Stayner of $4,500 put down on cash borrowed ou four notes ou which $500 had been paid on account, and to secure which a mortgage had been given on his residence, although in the list of assets no mention is made of any residence. The name of Eliza Stayner also is put down as representing a claim by her for $2,124,15, but for what is not stated.

On the original memorandum of his personal property made up by Ives, that gentle-man coolly adds this item: "Cash in pocket, $2," which brings his assets up that much more. Assignee Cromwell filed his bond for $300,000 yesterday, and it was approved by Judge Lawrence. The sureties, who qualified in double the amount, are W. H. Starbuck, J. N. Franklyn and J. H. Humphrees ville.

BURKER ROSS HANGED.

One of the Most Cold Blooded Murders on Record Legally Avenged.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 10.-John Thomas Ross, aged twenty-six years, was hanged in the Balt:more jail at 12:43 this afternoon. He was to have been hanged August 23, but was respited. The crime which Ross expiated on the gallows to-day was one of the most cold blooded and atrocious ever committed in this state. It was the murder of an old white woman named Emily Brown, Friday, December 10, 1885. The crime was committed in order that the murderer might "get a stake," as he confessed the motive, by selling the body of his viotin to a medical college for the paltry sum of $15. Ross made a full confession of his crime, and implicated Antersen Perry, assistant janitor at the Maryland university, and Albert Hawkins, both colored, The confession of Ross was in substance as follows: Emily Brown was a white woman of fifty-five years, who had seen better days. She had rich relatives on the eastern shore, but was a strauger to them. Impaired health and dire necessity compelled her to take up her abode with Mary Bloekson, colored, and her son, John Thomas Ross, at No. 3 Pig alley.

Anderson Perry boarded there, Perry continually urged Ross to kill Emily Brown, saying the college would pay $15 for the body. Finally he yielded to persuasion and procured the assistance of Albert Hawkins. They went to the house when Mary Blook-son was absent, entered Emily's room and killed her. Ross mashed her head with a brick and a hammer, and Hawkins stabbed her. A wheelbarrow was procured, and, after putting the corpse in a bag, Ross trundled it through the streets to the university, delivered it into Perry's hands, who shaved the head and prepared the body for the dissecting table. Dr. Herbert Harlan, the demonstrator, next morning noticed the wounds on the head and body and notified the police. This led to Ross' arrest, and subsequently Perry's and Hawkin's. The trial resulted in the conviction of Ross and the acquittal of the other two, notwithstanding Ross testimony against them.

NEW ALBANY, Ind., Sept. 10,-River men are unanimous in their opinion that it will be two, possibly three, months before the Ohlo river is again navigable, and the stage of the river from Pittsburg to Cairo, they claim was never lower. Farmers, shut off from railroad facilities, whose only opportunity is by steamboats in transporting their productsprincipally tobacco—are greatly discom-fited thereby. Hogsheads after logsheads lay on either side of the stream awaiting shipment to Louisville, and now arrangements are being made to team the article to the nearest point and dispose of it for the purpose of purchasing the necessaries of

The company is a strong one, and has undoubted merit to recommend It to public favor. The jokes, for a rarlty, are found after careful investigation, not to have been inscribed on the Egyptian obelisks, but are sparkling, bright and modern, mirth-provoking and new. The songs, as rendered, were creditable and keenly enjoyed. In the domain of minstrelsy the Baird troupe occupy a front seat, and never fall to realize the high expectation of an audience. Their return to Des Molnes will be looked lorward to with pleasurable authoipation by the amusement public, and their re-appearance here would be greeted by a full house.

Mordecal Williams, of Boyd, and Colonel H. C. Shump, of Lewis, are mentioned as candidates for the office of Railroad Commissioner.

"Don't know what ails me lately. Can't eat well—can't sleep well. Can't work, and don't enjoy doing anything. Ain't well. Feel all kind o' played out, someway." That is what scores of men say every day. If they would some say every day. Railroad Commissioner.

The citizens of Mt. Sterling are very law to be say every day. If they would take Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" they would soon have no occasion to say it. It purifies the blood, tones up the system and fort fies it against disease. It is a great antibilious remedy as well.

A MASS MEETING

Conference.

To the People of Mason County: There is an earnest, active effort on foot to secure some good for Kentucky by widespread advertising of the wonderful natural resources of the State. Many other States not so blessed by nature have become more populous and more wealthy by taking palns to make what advantages they do possess widely known to the world. That is what it is intended to do for Kentucky.

There are various organizations and agenciesat work to bring about a new erain the development of the State, all composed of reputable citizens with, we believe, an honest motive. One of these is a State committee which grew originally from a branch of the Louisville Board of Trade, city, died at her home in Kansas, this of which the Chalrman is Hon. J. Proctor Knott, late Governor of the State, and associated with whom are several Kentuckians of prominence, including John R. Proctor, late of Mason County, and now State Geologist. This committee has planned a State Industrial and Commergranted certificates in Fleming County cial Conference, to be held in Louisville in October, to which every county is invited to send delegates.

The undersigned were appointed by the Governor to assist in the organization of an interest in Mason County In the work of this State conference. In order that the county may be represented to the best advantage, we suggest that a mass meeting of citizens of Maysville and Mason County be held in the court house next Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of discussing the objects of the Louisville conference, and of electing ten Va., for murder committed somewhere delegates to attend that meeting. It is hoped that every district in the county shall be represented here on Monday afternoon. HAWTHORNE HILL,

THE EXPRESS COMPANIES.

NAMES OF THOSE OPERATING IN THE UNITED STATES.

Capital Stock of Each Company and Dividends Paid to Stockholders Where Each System Operatoe and Over What Roads-New Features Recently Added.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Since the recent sale of the Baltimore & Ohio Express company, a general interest has been taken by the public in anything pertaining thereto, and anything relating to the business of the big express companies is read with great interest. The recent hearings before the interstate commerce commission revealed some interesting facts on this subject. There are four leading express companies of the country, as foilows:

Companies Stock, Dividend rate, Price Adams........$12,000 000 8 per cent. 148 American..... 15,000 000 6 per cent. Wells, Fargo& Co. 6,250,000 8 per cent. United States. 10,00J,000 4 per cent. 85

Beyond these there is the Pacific Express company, a Nebraska corporation, with an authorized capital of $6,000,000. The Pacific operates in the west and southwest. Its earning are distributed among the railroads interested, such as the Union and Missouri Pacifics, according to mileage. The Northern Pacific express, though nominally a stock concern, is in reality a department of the railroad company. The four companies in the above table have a joint capital of $46,250,000. The last dividend rate and late quotations are given. The $10,000,000 eapital of the United States, includes the $3,000,-000 just added on account of the Baltimore

& Ohio purchase. The Wells-Fargo concern was organized by the Fargos of the American express. Its operations cover 35,000 miles of rail and stage lines west of the Missourl river. The field of the Adams Express company is about identical with the Pennsylvania railroad system. The United States runs over the Delaware & Lackawana-this since the Erie company undertook to do its own express business. West, the operations of the states are mainly conflued to the lines of the Rock Island road. The Erie express is or-Rock Island road. The Erie express is organized as a department of the railroad. The commodore used to say that railroad work properly ends on the whole with rolling cars over the track; that it original idea of the railroad's work was simply to furnish tracks to be used by indi- at $7,000. They are fully insured. viduals for their own englues and cars on paying toll. Vanderbilt saw the true limit that a railroad cannot profitably go into the business of collecting goods from the public. It is apparent that Robert Garrett lived in his eyes too much when calculating the profits that would accrue to his road from holding the express business. The Reading road tried the express business, but with results so disastrous that the franchise was turned over to the Adams company. The expressmen are finding satisfaction in the growing evidence that their business must continue apart from that of the railroads. As regards the prospects for an express trust, the question is identical with the unification of railway direction-when there is but one rail oad there will, in all likelihood, be but one express company.

These various express organizations make no report to the public. Being independent of the railroad companie, their direct re- coach and freight engine were ditched and sponsibility is only to the stockholders. It is urged, on behalf of the companies, that they are no more than large private shippers, and can in no case be subject to the present interstate commerce act. There are no statistics available showing the classes and volume of business carried on hy the leading express companies. The volume is, of course, enormous.

Express officials unite in asserting that the usual division of receipts is 40 per cent. to the railroads, 50 for collecting the goods, and 10 for profits and insurance. One thing is apparent: Such are the influences at work that the companies are forced constantly to to reduce rates and as a resuedy to seek larger traille.

From 1879 the parcel business of the express companies has had a great development. On books and other printed matter the rates of the leading express companies are approximately the same as postoffice rates. At these rates, however, matter cannot be taken for points away from lines of rail. As against the postoffice, the express men offer some advantages. The express people take the commercial risk; the government ounnot do this. To be sure the losses through the postoffice are small, but at the same time there is no absolute guaranty. The postotilce serves as a regulator of express charges on parcels, the effect being to force reductions. Any deficiency in postoffice revenues is made good from taxation. In this way the most formidable competition is kept up. The flexibility of commerce is fostered hy government action. The Wells, Fargo company announces that It is prepared to "make collectious and fill commissions.

In 1882 the express companies began the husiness of selling money orders. The American led off. At the end of a year the the United States adopted the idea. Since then the Wells-Fargo and the Northern Pacific have adopted it, and now the Pacific express is to follow. Again, the charges approximate those of the government for postal orders. The express money order has advantages over the postoffice issues. The postal order is payable at but one office; the express order is payable at many offices. Again, the express companies take the risk of loss. The flexibility of commerce is again pitted against government red tape.

A marked feature of the express development is the tendency toward uniform rates Progress, Already progress, gradually both railway freight and express charges are approaching the unity prin-

BOONVILLE, Mo., Sept. 10.—In response to a letter of inquiry, Mr. Wallace Williams, editor of the Boonville Advertiser, has received the following letter from Jeifersou

"BEAUVOIR, Miss., Sept. 1. "DEAR SIR -I have received your letter of the 27th ult. requesting me to settle the question ... regard to my opinion as to local option being a proper method to secure temperance. Many of the controversies of men are rather in relation to terms than things. If local option means the right of a local community to decide whether they will have barrooms and saloons licensed to sell intoxicants, then I should say, if thus limited, I should be in favor of the exercise of the power. It would be commended for two reasons

"First-The adoption of the rule would depend upon the consent of the governor. Second-The rule being supported by public opinion, could be peacefully and of ficiently executed. The measure would be merely withholding the license to do that which oue has not an inalienable right to perform, would take no one's property without just compensation and would not invade the rights of any man's neighbor. You will not fail to perceive that my position is very far short of what is demanded by the Prohibitionists, to use the recognized designation of au existing party. Respectfully, "JEFFERSON DAVIS."
